|--------------------|--|
| | Your group benefits may be modified after the effective date of this booklet. You will receive written notification of changes to your group plan. The notification will supplement your group benefits booklet and should be kept in a safe place together with this booklet. |
| | If there are any discrepancies between the group contract and the information in this booklet, the group contract will take priority. |
| | If you have any questions about the information in this employee benefits booklet, or you need additional information about your group benefits, please contact your employer. |
| Eligibility | To be eligible for group benefits, you must be a resident of Canada and meet the conditions outlined in your employer's UBC Employee Group Eligibility Matrices for Group Benefits . This information is located by referring to your Benefits Coverage Eligibility Brochure for your particular employee group. |
| | The waiting period for your group plan is as outlined in your employer's UBC Employee Group Eligibility Matrices for Group Benefits . This information is located by referring to your Benefits Coverage Eligibility Brochure for your particular employee group. |
| | We consider you to be actively working if you are performing all the usual and customary duties of your job with your employer for the scheduled number of hours for that day. This includes scheduled non- working days and any period of continuous paid vacation of up to 3 months if you were actively working on the last scheduled working | day. We do not consider you to be actively at work if you are receiving disability benefits or are participating in a partial disability or rehabilitation program. Your dependents become eligible for coverage on the date you become eligible or the date they first become your dependent, whichever is later. You must apply for coverage for yourself in order for your dependents to be eligible. Your spouse and dependent children become eligible for Optional Life coverage on the date you are enroled for Basic Life, or the date they first become your dependent, whichever is later. If eligible, you will be automatically enroled in Basic Life, however in order to enrol for Employee Optional Life and/or Spouse Optional Life, you must apply for coverage (see Enrolment). Dependent children are eligible for coverage as part of your Employee Optional Life, regardless of marital status. However, if you had an eligible spouse who was approved for Spouse Optional Life coverage prior to March 1, 2015, then the dependent child is eligible for coverage as part of the Spouse Optional Life. Who qualifies as Your dependent must be your spouse or your child and a resident of your dependent Canada or the United States. Your spouse by marriage or under any other formal union recognized by law, or your partner of the opposite sex or of the same sex who is publicly represented as your spouse, is an eligible dependent. You can only cover one spouse at a time. Your child and your spouse's child (other than a foster child), who is not married or in any other formal union recognized by law, and who is: under 19, or age 19 or over but under age 25 who is a full-time student attending an educational institution recognized under the Income Tax Act (Canada) and is entirely dependent on you for financial support. A child for whom you or your spouse is the primary caregiver and who has been granted custody and control, is also considered an eligible dependent, provided the child is entirely dependent on you or your spouse for financial support and is:

- under 19, or
- age 19 or over but under age 25 who is a full-time student attending an educational institution recognized under the Income Tax Act (Canada).

If a child becomes handicapped before the limiting age, we will continue coverage as long as:

- the child is incapable of financial self-support because of a physical or mental disability, and
- the child depends on you for financial support, and is not married nor in any other formal union recognized by law.

A child may not be considered to be a dependent of more than one employee.

In these cases, you must notify Sun Life within 31 days of the date the child attains the limiting age. Your employer can give you more information about this.

Enrolment For your Basic Life coverage: if eligible, you will be automatically enroled in this benefit. However, you will need to complete an enrolment form to designate your beneficiary.

For your Optional Life coverage and/or your Spouse Optional Life coverage: proof of good health will always be required when you request Optional Life coverage and any increase in that coverage. Coverage will not take effect before Sun Life approves the proof of good health.

If you reside outside Québec and are designating a minor as your beneficiary, you may wish to designate someone to receive the death benefits during the time your beneficiary is a minor. If you reside outside Québec and have not designated a trustee, current legislation may require Sun Life to pay the death benefit to the court or to a guardian or public trustee. If you reside in |

Québec, the death benefit will be paid to the parent(s)/legal guardian of the minor on the minor's behalf. Alternatively, you may wish to designate the estate as beneficiary and provide a trustee with directions in your will. You are encouraged to consult a legal advisor.

Coverage during total disability (applicable to Optional Life only) If you become totally disabled before retirement or your normal retirement date, whichever is earlier, Optional Life coverage may continue without the payment of premiums as long as you are totally disabled as per the definition specified under your employer's Group Long Term Disability contracts. This continued coverage is subject to the terms of the contract which were in effect on the date you became totally disabled, including reductions and terminations.

Sun Life must receive proof of your total disability within 12 months of the date the disability begins. After that, we can require ongoing proof that you are still totally disabled.

If proof of total disability is approved after an individual insurance policy becomes effective as a result of converting the group Life coverage, the group Life coverage will be reduced by the amount of the individual insurance policy, unless the individual insurance policy is exchanged for a refund of premiums.

Total disability must continue for:

- an uninterrupted period of 6 months, or
- the elimination period for Long-Term Disability if you are entitled to Long-Term Disability payments, whichever is shorter.

This coverage will continue without payment of premiums, from the date total disability begins, until the date you cease to be totally disabled or the date you fail to give Sun Life proof of your continued total disability, whichever is earlier.

Spouse Optional Life coverage will also continue without payment of premiums, as long as your Life coverage is continued without payment of premiums, but not after the Spouse Optional Life benefit is terminated.

| | Child Optional Life coverage will also continue without payment of premiums, as long as your Life coverage is continued without payment of premiums, but not after the Child Optional Life benefit is terminated. |
|---------------------------------|--|
| | For the purposes of your Life coverage, you will be considered totally disabled if you are prevented by illness from performing any occupation you are or may become reasonably qualified for by education, training or experience. However, if you are totally disabled under the Long-Term Disability benefit, you are also considered to be totally disabled under the Life benefit. |
| Living Benefits Loan Program | If you are terminally ill with a life expectancy of 24 months or less, you may apply for a commercial loan under the Sun Life Living Benefits Loan Program. Under this program, you may receive an advance of up to 50% of your Basic Life coverage, to a maximum of $100,000. |
| Converting Life coverage | If your Life coverage ends or reduces for any reason other than your request, you may apply to convert the group Life coverage to an individual Life policy with Sun Life without providing proof of good health. |
